After an amazing day at the Eiffel tower, a boat cruise and a Hyper Marche shop we are about to head off to a disco.

Before we arrived at the Eiffel Tower, we had to face a massive block of TRAFFIC which led to a French quiz, Disney games and some dancing to French music. Finally, we got to the one and only Eiffel Tower! We all had a sigh of relief and had massive grins upon our faces. Whilst walking up the Eiffel Tower we were in the process of getting attacked by the wind- it was scary but also extremely exciting as we literally nearly got swept off our feet.

When eating our lunch on the second floor, we realised that the Eiffel Tower was originally a red/brown colour and now it has turned into a copper bronze.

As if it couldn't get any better, we then had a lovely trip down the river Seine by boat with audio commentary, so we knew what to look for.

On the way back, we had a good look around the Hyper Marche shop and got a few presents for home.

When we got back we had dinner. OMG the snails (personally) were lovely!
